

BEDFORD AND COUNTY ATHLETICS CLUB

Role Description: Welfare Officer

The welfare officer gives members a trained and trusted person to speak to about a concern, either within the club or at times outside athletics. The welfare officer is the lead person who has the right skills and knowledge to manage any concern raised in an appropriate way. They will know how to deal with concerns in a way that wouldn't hamper an investigation. Their responsibility will be to ensure the right information is shared with the right people at the right time.

By completing training provided by England Athletics and understanding the policies and procedures set out by UK Athletics, clubs can be confident that their welfare officers have the right level of knowledge for the role. This includes how to raise a concern and who to speak to within the sport.

Responsibilities:

The Club Welfare Officer (CWO) with the support of the club committee has the responsibility to:

- Implement effective Child Safeguarding Policy and Child Safeguarding Procedures and keep them up to date
- Implement effective Adult Safeguarding Policy and Adult Safeguarding Procedures and keep them up to date
- Promote safeguarding at the club and encourage good practice
- Respond appropriately to safeguarding concerns
- Regularly report to the club's organising committee on safeguarding matters
- Ensure that members of the club/volunteers/staff who are working with children and/or adults at risk are recruited safely and in line with legal requirements
- Maintain records of safeguarding training attended by club members
- Maintain records of club coaches and officials' licences and criminal record checks
- Make sure the sports volunteers/staff, parents/carers, adults and children are aware of:
 - a. How to contact the CWO
 - b. The codes of conduct for working with children/adults at risk

c. How to respond to safeguarding concerns

- Deal effectively with breaches of the codes of conduct, poor practice, or allegations of abuse
- Keep up to date with developments in safeguarding
- Attend the relevant safeguarding courses for the role of CWO
- Complete a criminal record check through the relevant Home Country procedures
- Maintain confidential records of reported safeguarding concerns and action taken
- Liaise with the HCAF Welfare Officer and/or statutory agencies if/when required.
